Addiction Recovery Housing Program

A community-based, sober living residential program to support men through recovery and transition to independent living

mission-services.com

About

Why

To find a living environment that supports your recovery and helps you transition into independence.

Who

Men 19 years of age and older committed to recovery and interested in a communal living approach.

How

Please call us to apply. We welcome both referrals and self-referrals. The program provides affordable shared housing with minimal staff supervision to men living in houses with three others.
